Main Speaker: Ann Hood

The author of the bestselling novel, THE KNITTING CIRCLE, and the memoir, COMFORT: A JOURNEY THROUGH GRIEF, which was named one of the top ten non fiction books of 2008 by Entertainment Weekly and was a New York Times Editor's Choice. Ann has been a welcomed speaker at Fiber Events- combining her story telling skill with the healing respect for fiber related arts and crafts. A R.I. native- she is very excited to have been invited to this event and looks forward to meeting members of NHA. She will have her books available for purchase during the afternoon spin.

Local Rhode Island Vendors will be on site at the Jencks Center. We hope to provide you with an opportunity to support our local vendor and fiber artists.

GIVE BAGS: Since we are so close to the holiday season we thought it would be a great opportunity for NHA members to provide either hand made hats, mitten, scarves or a non perishable food item for donation to one or several local shelters/food kitchen...

We will have decorated boxes at the entrance for you to place your donations.

Lunch will be available for purchase (must be pre-ordered with payment). Plouff's is a well known caterer in the RI area and is highly regarded at local festivals as well as an established local Restaurant in the Pawtucket area... Please use the registration form to choose your selections.

About Slater Mill: Located on the Blackstone River in Pawtucket, Rhode Island, Slater Mill is a museum complex dedicated to bringing one of the most exciting and significant periods of American history to life. Visitors to the site experience a time when an America of small farmers and craftsmen was poised to become the industrial leader of the world

The story of Slater Mill is the story of innovation, of labor, of artisans, of women's rights, of the cotton economy, of immigration and assimilation, as well as the story of industry. It is culturally, educationally and historically important for people of all ages and origins to be able to come, see, touch, learn and be inspired at Slater Mill.

The Mill Staff will be hosting Mini-Tours of the Mill through out the afternoon during our open spin time. Please indicate on the registration form if you are interested in the tour. We will develop the tour times based on interest and number of people pre-registered. Don't miss this opportunity to experience not only RI history- but significant industrial America History brought to life.
